Bread or Stones Campaign Volunteer Training Workshop:

The Bread or Stones Campaign for child well-being (Mt. 7:9) is a program of the Louisiana Interchurch Conference (LIC). We are a member of the LIC and the Bread or Stones Campaign. This statewide campaign is holding the first Bread or Stones Coordinator Training on Friday, April 3 in the evening, ending around mid-day on Saturday, April 4 at the Wesley Center in Woodworth, LA (south of Alexandria). Attendance (including room and board) is free, but limited. Bread or Stones Coordinators are volunteer church members who have a moral commitment to improve the lives of the children of Louisiana and a passion for bringing about change. Coordinators are networked and supported through the Louisiana Interchurch Conference (LIC). If you are interested in learning more about this campaign or the workshop please contact Fr. Dan Krutz, LIC executive director, licexecdir@aol.com or (225) 344-0134. Thank you for faithfully responding to Jesus' call to care for our children (Mt. 7:9).

FIRST SATURDAY MASS

First Saturday mass will be celebrated Saturday, March 7th. at 8:30am with Exposition until 10am.

Coordinator of Faith Formation

Sacred Heart Catholic Church Parish is requesting résumés for the position of Coordinator of Faith Formation.

The Coordinator administers and implements a total parish faith formation program that builds a solid foundation in support of Christian living, ministry and outreach for youth and adults.

Duties and Responsibilities would include:

- Implement catechetical programs which support the formation of missionary disciples in accordance with diocesan vision for all levels of Youth Faith Formation, form mature missionary disciples through Adult Faith Formation, provide for parish needs and culture, and promote our parish's mission and vision.
- Supervise Youth Mentors, Adult Volunteers and Confirmation Sponsors, following all of the guidelines under Safe Environment, including certifications.
- Possess language skills necessary to effectively present information and train staff and volunteers, youth and parents, both verbally and in writing.
- Solve practical problems and deal with conflicts among staff and parents/children, and work cooperatively with members of the staff, children and other adults.
- Display proficiency in word processing and database software programs, specifically Word, Excel and Access.

The individual considering the position of Faith Formation Director must be a Catholic in good standing with the Catholic Church and able to live by the diocesan lifestyle for employees, striving to live as missionary disciples themselves.

This job description is a summary of the essential duties and responsibilities, and is subject to change at management's discretion.

Email with Subject line Faith Formation to shcsecretary@htdiocese.org; mail to/drop off at 415 Union Street.

“If you wish, I will make three tents.”

Scripture scholars have queried why Jesus took only Peter, James and John with him up a high mountain by themselves. Did they have special rolls or importance among his disciples? Did he trust only these three to experience his transfiguration and be seen in the presence of Moses and Elijah? Or were they the only three who were available on that day? What matters is the new understanding of Jesus that these three disciples gained when they saw him in a new light in the presence of the Great Law Giver and the Great Prophet, and realized that Jesus is the Son of God in whom God is well pleased. Most importantly, they heard God say, “Listen to him.” That command from God is reminiscent of the last words Mary speaks in Scripture when she instructs the servants at the Wedding Feast of Cana, “Do whatever he tells you.” The message to us today is the same. Listen to Jesus and do whatever he tells us. To do that we must frequently read and reflect on Scripture.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD said to Abram: All the families of the earth shall find blessing in you

(Genesis 12:1-4a)

Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — God has called us to a holy life, not because of our works but according to grace

(2 Timothy 1:8b-10).

Gospel — Atop a high mountain, Jesus was transfigured before Peter, James, and John. (Matthew 17:1-9).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Blessed Sacrament was not reserved in church buildings in the first centuries of the church. In those early years, of course, people met in borrowed “house churches,” gathering on the Lord’s Day for community, apostolic teaching, the breaking of the bread, and the prayers, as Acts of the Apostles tells us. Dispersed, people went their way into the workaday world until the next assembly. Weighing down their hearts was the absence of brothers and sisters, not only the sick, but those imprisoned for the faith. No wonder they developed a way of extending the food of the Holy Table to them.

Forty years ago, every altar boy in training heard about Saint Tarcisus. He was a twelve-year-old boy at the time of intense persecution in fourth-century Rome. His community had begun to convey the consecrated bread from their Eucharist to those condemned to death or awaiting trial. Normally deacons did this, but on one occasion, it was necessary to send the boy to bear the holy mysteries to the prison. The legend says that he was an athlete, and was detained on the way by some playmates who wanted him to join in their game. When he refused, they demanded to know what he was carrying. The situation went from bad to worse, and he was badly beaten and died of his injuries. A hundred years later, a pope called him a second St. Stephen. In the nineteenth century, Cardinal Nicholas Wiseman of England wrote a novel in which he expanded the story and popularized it. By then, no one seemed to notice that this twelve-year-old was actually touching and ministering the Eucharist, unthinkable until recently. Scholars say the story rings true: the first reason for setting some Eucharistic bread aside was not adoration, but Communion of the sick.
