ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Whenever you cannot go to Mass or receive the Eucharist, there is a prayer that allows you to make a Spiritual Communion.

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

You may make this Spiritual Communion anytime you need it and as often as you need it.)

DANCING FOR JOY

The people say that the sun dances on this day in joy for a risen Savior.

Alexander Carmichael

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Jesus is Risen, Alleluia

Dear Sacred Heart Family,

Wishing you a Happy Easter. I pray that the risen Savior fill your hearts with peace, patience and joy during this season of Easter.

In today's contest, the risen Jesus offers hope and meaning to every one of us. He tells us that the sufferings and confinements we go through will come to an end very soon, because he has overcome suffering, sin and even death. May I ask you to continue to pray for the world and humanity that through his healing and protection we may experience the Easter joy he brings.

1.) The risen Savior tells us that He loves us:

We must rejoice on Easter Sunday because we are made to experience the great love of our Father for us and his great power in raising Jesus from the dead.

2.) The risen Savior offers hope:

We must rejoice today because we are made to experience hope; with Jesus who conquered sin and death and in His power we too can conquer sin in our life.

3.) The risen Savior is always with us:

We must rejoice today because we are not alone, He is with us that we are not to live our lives in isolation but that our lives are to be lived with Christ.

Dear brothers and sisters, let us rejoice because Jesus rose from the dead; let us rejoice because He has saved us. My prayer is that our hearts be filled with hope and courage for the future. May the risen Lord bless you and your families.

Assuring you of my prayers, love and support.

Fr. Joseph Henry

REJOICE AND BE GLAD

“This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad” (Psalm 118:24). Let us remember that these words of today’s responsorial psalm are not only sung from the hearts of those gathered in our parish. They are also sung by the poor in tiny barrios throughout Central and South America. They are sung by those denied religious freedom in our world; these Christians lift their voices in clandestine places of worship. These words are sung by people who have lost loved ones to acts of terrorism and war around the globe. Even in the midst of conflict and division, Christians still come together to declare that poverty, loneliness, violence, and division will never, ever have as much power as the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Indeed, let us rejoice this day and be glad!

April 12, 2020 Easter Sunday

John 20:1-9

“For they did not yet understand the Scripture, that he had to rise from the dead.”

Simon Peter and John rushed to the tomb after Mary Magdalene told them it was empty. They had spent the past three years with Jesus watching as he healed the sick, drove out demons, raised people from the dead, and was transfigured in the presence of Moses and Elijah. They knew Jesus on a first name basis. Now they are confronted with the most important and revealing event in the history of the salvation of mankind - the Resurrection. It would take two visits by Jesus to the apostles, locked in an upper room, and a meal he served them on the shores of the Sea of Galilee, for they began to believe Jesus was truly risen. Our own faith in the Risen Jesus is constantly tested. As good stewards of that faith we must continue to grow in our awareness and appreciation of all that our Triune God has done for us. We must learn and love Scripture and Tradition. Our desire should be to get to know Jesus, Our Risen Lord, on a first name basis.
