Heart to Heart ~ Thoughts From Fr. Brett

Dear friends,
God's blessings with you all!

New School Year

I'd first like to offer my prayers for all those students, teachers, and faculty in our community at the beginning of this new school year. May God bless you with openness of mind and an outpouring of wisdom throughout the year!

Assumption of Mary

Second, a very blessed Solemnity of the Assumption to all of you! May our Mother Mary, assumed into Heaven, lead us closer to the heart of her beloved Son and our Lord Jesus!

Mass at a Glance

Finally, as I promised at Mass a few weeks back, this week I am beginning a series in the bulletin exploring what we as Catholics believe about the Mass and why we do what we do. In addition to meditating on the particular parts of the Mass, this will also be an opportunity to explore many of the different customs and practices that are present here in particular at Sacred Heart. I pray that these reflections may not only increase our understanding of the Eucharistic Sacrifice, but also our devotion to our Lord and desire to offer ourselves fully in their most Holy Sacrifice!
May Jesus, meek and humble of heart, continue to bless you and your families!

I am sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Brett Lapeyrouse

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

Lord, through the prayers of this faithful community and the intercession of Our Lady Star of the Sea, protect the lives and property of your people from the devastation of hurricanes and storms this hurricane season. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Children's Corner

Sharing the Gospel

One night the disciples were caught in a storm, out in the middle of a lake. The winds were strong. The waves crashed against their boat. But Jesus was so powerful, he walked on that stormy lake. Then he completely stopped the storm. No problem you have is ever too big for Jesus. He can do anything.
Put all your trust in him.

Prayer

Jesus, I thank you for showing me how powerful you are.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of Jesus walking on water.

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares.

Jesus went out to them,
walking on the lake.

Mission for the Week

When you are afraid, ask Jesus for help. Remember how powerful he is.

The Mass at a Glance

Intro: What is it?

Even for Catholics who have been attending Mass for the whole of their lives, the question, “What is the Mass?” probably does not pop into our heads fairly often. For many of us, we were simply taught that going to Mass every Sunday was required of every believer and so that's what we need to do. But have you every stopped to ponder why Mass is the way it is and why we have to go to Mass at all?

The first obvious point we turn to is the Last Supper. As St. Paul recounts, “he Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, ‘This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’ In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.’ (1 Cor. 11:23-25) So when we go to Mass, we participate in that Last Supper, where Jesus gave us His very Body and Blood as food and drink.

If we dive deeper, however, we see that we don't just remember the Last Supper. St. Paul continues, “For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.” (1 Cor. 11:26) Indeed at Mass, when the priest proclaims, “The Mystery of faith,” all the people respond, “When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.” Every time you attend Mass, we are liturgically remembering or proclaiming the Death of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the death by which He bought us salvation.

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of Vatican II summed up this profound truth in this way, “At the Last Supper, on the night when He was betrayed, our Saviour instituted the eucharistic sacrifice of His Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the centuries until He should come again, and so to entrust to His beloved spouse, the Church, a memorial of His death and resurrection.” (Sacrosanctum Concilium, paragraph 47) At every Mass, we as Church encounter the great mysteries of Our Lord's Life, Death, and Resurrection, presented under signs and symbols.

That is why understanding the prayers and actions of the Holy Sacrifice are so crucial. When we know not only what we should say and do, but why we say and do certain things at Mass, We can more profoundly experience the mysteries present before us in the Mass and give worship more whole-heartedly to God for what He has done for us. As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (the text by which we learn the proper ways in which to celebrate the Mass) states, “It is, therefore, of the greatest importance that the celebration of the Mass or the Lord's Supper be so ordered that the sacred ministers and the faithful taking part in it, according to the state proper to each, may draw from it more abundantly those fruits, to obtain which, Christ the Lord instituted the Eucharistic Sacrifice of his Body and Blood and entrusted it as the memorial of his Passion and Resurrection to the Church, his beloved Bride.” (Paragraph 17)

It is my prayer that this series of reflections on the Mass will aid you in praying the Mass more fervently and receiving the graces the Lord desires for you more deeply.
