YOUTH IN THE LEAD

Three local Sacred Heart parishioners have gone beyond the norm. What makes this unusual is that two are in high school and the third is only in 5th grade! Siblings Natalie and Madeline Bourgeois and Noah Castaneda have all shown that age is no limit when it comes to service to our church. Madeline has served as an altar server for seven years, while Natalie and Noah are not only regular altar servers but song leaders as well. They also give of their time to go Christmas caroling for the homebound parishioners. The three have built a healthy list of accomplishments with their vocal abilities also by representing their schools and community at the District and State level honor choirs over the past several years. All three are very active in other aspects of service to the community such as playing violin for local charity events, helping in the high school ARK club (Acts of Random Kindness), and BETA service projects. At the same time, each has maintained a 4.0 GPA at his/her respective schools. Natalie and Madeline are the daughters of Gerard and Ruth Bourgeois. The girls both attend Berwick High School. Noah is the son of Luis and B.]. Castaneda; he attends Berwick Elementary. These three youths are definitely doing their part in giving their Time, Talent and Treasures to our church parish and beyond.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS WORKSHOP

Father Freddie is requesting that all Bread & Wine Ministers attend a workshop on Wednesday, January 25th, at 6:00 p.m. in church. Please make every effort to attend.

LIBERATION AND REFORM

While you might have to reach for an atlas to determine that Isaiah is speaking about Galilee, today's first reading (part of which was read at Christmas) is prophetic of Jesus' future ministry in that province. The light that brings salvation and rejoicing is, ultimately, Christ. Liberation is the theme: liberation from both ignorance ("darkness") and sin (the "yoke").

As Isaiah identifies a place, so Paul describes an attitude: the attitude that develops, even among good people, of equating their own will with the common good. This always brings dissension, and so it has done in Corinth. Paul will not allow this; we are all members of "Christ's party." The gospel is not to divide us.

Matthew quotes from Isaiah in today's Gospel, presenting Jesus as the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecies. The theme is "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 4:17). To spread this message, Jesus begins to select disciples, four of whom we meet today: Peter, Andrew, James, and John.
