4th. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit, he cried out, “what have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” Jesus rebuked him and said, “Quiet! Come out of him!”

Mark 1:23-25

Prayer to the Blessed Virgin Mary before Mass

O Mother of devoted love and mercy, most blessed Virgin Mary, with all my heart and all my affection I take refuge in you, though I am a poor and undeserving sinner. You stood by your most dear Son as he was hanging on the cross. Stand mercifully by me, poor sinner though I am, and by all the priests who today offer this sacrifice, here and in all our holy Church. With the help of your gracious presence, may we offer a sacrifice that is right and acceptable in the presence of the most high and undivided Trinity. Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY—

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK With one swift command, Jesus freed a man from the possession of evil spirits. He has that same power to banish the shadow of sin from our own lives. Let's invite him into our hearts, asking him to cleanse the darkness he finds there.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Moses taught the Israelites that God would raise up a prophet like him to teach them the Lord's commands. But he also forewarned about false prophets. How can we avoid listening to false prophetic voices?

Second Reading:

Paul expresses his desire for the Corinthian believers to be free of anxiety so they can focus their attention and energies on Jesus. What distracts you from the Lord?

Gospel:

Mark informs us that early in Jesus's public ministry his "fame spread" quickly throughout Galilee because of his powerful deeds, such as the healing of the demon-possessed man in today's reading. Is there something or someone in your life that you pray Jesus would heal?

World Day for Consecrated Life

Friday, February 2

God of all goodness, you have called people to follow you faithfully. Humans have heard that call and many choose to follow your call in varied and faith-filled lives. Some follow your call in private, silent lives as hermits; some choose to follow you with lives lived as virgins and widows; while others choose public lives of vowed men and women as religious brothers and sisters. Abundantly give to these men and women the courage to follow their call as witnesses to your gifts and faith and service to the world. We ask this in faith through the name of Jesus our Savior. Amen.

Angel of God

my guardian dear to whom His love commits me here ever this day be at my side to light and guard to rule and guide. Amen.

St. Ignatius of Antioch

St. Ignatius of Antioch, a bishop of Antioch in the first century, was a direct disciple of the apostle John.

Throughout his ministry, he emphasized the importance of the real presence of Christ in the bread and wine, considering the Eucharist as the "medicine of immortality" and "the flesh of our Savior Jesus Christ." His writings, particularly his seven epistles, passionately affirmed the significance of partaking in the Eucharistic celebration as a means to unite with Christ and fellow believers. He urged the faithful to hold fast to the teachings of the apostles and the sacraments passed down through the generations. St. Ignatius was martyred in Rome's Colosseum when he was thrown to the lions and devoured. He's remembered as the patron saint of Church unity, and the Eucharist. St. Ignatius of Antioch, pray for us!

Children's Corner

Sharing the Gospel Grass stains. Tomato sauce.

Brightly colored fruit drinks. When these nasty stains stick to your clothes, it is tough to get them out. Regular soap won't work. You need something stronger. Jesus is really strong, too. In today's Gospel, a nasty evil spirit screamed when it saw Jesus. Jesus was so powerful, he cleaned that evil spirit right out.

Prayer God, you are much stronger than evil. Nothing is too hard for you to clean.

Something to Draw a picture of Jesus on a super-powerful stain-fighting laundry soap.

Mission for the Week Make a new label for your family's stain pre-treatment bottle. Trace around the bottle, write Mark 1:21-28 in big letters, and decorate your label with a picture of Jesus. Tape your new label to the bottle so you and your parents remember how strong Jesus is.

BAPTISMS: Second & fourth Sunday of each month, 10:00 AM. BOTH parents AND Godparents MUST attend a baptism seminar held first Tuesday of each month, 6:00PM in the Gallen Room (parking lot entry).
WEDDINGS: Couples should make an appointment with the parish priest at least six months in advance.
ANOIDING OF THE SICK: Call the rectory anytime at 385-0770.
COMMUNION IN THE HOME/HOME VISITS: Call the rectory at 385-0770.
HOSPITAL VISITS: If you or someone you know would like to be visited in the hospital, call the rectory at 385-0770.

Mass at a Glance

Part 13: Eucharistic Prayer IV –

The second portion of the Eucharistic Prayer (EP) takes two main purposes of remembrance and intercession. After the words of consecration are pronounced over the bread and wine so they transubstantiate into the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, we are encouraged once again to call to mind the great things the Lord has done for us. This remembering is called anamnesis, a Greek word meaning, “a calling to mind.” The General Instruction (GIRM) states this is that, “by which the Church, fulfilling the command that she received from Christ the Lord through the Apostles, celebrates the memorial of Christ, recalling especially his blessed Passion, glorious Resurrection, and Ascension into heaven.” (GIRM 79e)

This is accomplished in two ways. The first is the memorial acclamation, by which the people express their acknowledgment of the mystery unfolding in front of them in one of three short statements. It is noteworthy that this acclamation is meant to be sung/recited by the people alone in response to the priest exclaiming, “The mystery of faith,” as evidenced by the rubric instruction in the missal. The other is through the words of the EP immediately following the memorial acclamation. In every form of the EP, There is some explicit mention of events in the Paschal Mystery, i.e. Christ’s Passion, Death, Resurrection, Ascension, and the second coming.

One other feature of the second half of the EP is some form of prayer for the communion of the Church. The GIRM relates, “The Church’s intention, indeed, is that the faithful not only offer this unblemished sacrificial Victim but also learn to offer their very selves, and so day by day to be brought, through the mediation of Christ, into unity with God and with each other, so that God may at last be all in all.” (GIRM 79f) It is a perfect reminder that Christ truly unites the members of the Church, and not any other human endeavor, and the Eucharist is the means by which Christ brings about this communion.

As this great prayer of sacrifice continues, the priest also calls to mind all those we are praying for. The Eucharist is offered for all the members of the Church, living and dead, and so prayers of intercession are inserted in the EP to bring all those in need of prayer to the altar. The typically intercessions are for the Church and her pastors, especially the Pope and the local Bishop of the diocese where the specific Mass is celebrated, for those gathered and those they are praying for, and for the dead. In this portion, we also ask the intercessions of Mary and the saints, reminding us of the Church triumphant in heaven praying for us.

Finally, the EP ends with the solemn doxology, which expresses the way in which the liturgical prayer of the Church is offered: through Christ, the Son, to God, the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit. All the prayer of the Church is offered in a trinitarian way, for the “gory and honor” of God Almighty, and the people give their assent to the prayer by responding, “Amen.”
