MISSION APPEAL

The weekend of July 8th & 9th, Father Augustine will be here to present a mission appeal for the diocesan Mission Co-op collection and will celebrate all of the weekend Masses. Father Augustine represents the young Diocese of Kohima in the northeast of India.

Much remains to be done for this interior and under-developed region. With the help of generous Catholics like those of Sacred Heart Parish who join the Church's mission of evangelization through contributions, prayers and support, much can be done to build the kingdom of God in Kohima. The Indian Mission Coordinator, Father Abraham Orapankal, sent word that he thanks us for our good will and for the invitation to come to our parish.

MAINTENANCE COLLECTION

The Maintenance Collection will be taken up as the second collection at all Masses on the weekend of July 1 & 2.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

INDEPENDENCE DAY

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

It's Independence Day week, and there is a link worth tracing between the Declaration of Independence and the language of liturgy. One of the signers of the Declaration on that July 4 long ago was Charles Carroll, probably the wealthiest man in the colonies and one of the few Catholics on the political scene. As a flourish to his signature, he sought to distinguish himself from other prominent citizens bearing the same name by penning "Charles Carroll of Carrolltown"—a defiant "come and get me if you dare" postscript aimed at the British.

Carroll's brother John was a priest and patriot who in 1789 was given the task of organizing the Catholic Church in this country. By 1791 he had assembled a synod, or assembly of delegates, to launch that task formally. Archbishop Carroll wanted to gain acceptance of our faith by American people who mistrusted our customs and could not comprehend our liturgy. He made the amazing proposal to Rome that our liturgy should be prayed not in Latin, but in the vernacular, English. His wish was denied, but one hundred sixty years later, his deep desire helped the American bishops and scholars at the Second Vatican Council to win the vote in favor of the vernacular not just for the United States, but for the Church throughout the world.
