Heart-to-Heart: Thoughts from Fr. Brett

Dear friends,

God's blessings with you all!

This week we have much to remember and much to be thankful for. On Tuesday, we celebrate our country and the freedoms we enjoy on the Fourth of July, a freedom that God calls us to exercise by worshiping Him and following His Son. In addition, July 1 marked one year since I have arrived here at Sacred Heart Church as your Administrator.

As I reflect on this past year, I marvel at all the many blessings God has given me to you, and I hope that He has been able to bring to you through me. As we have journeyed together through the Church's liturgical year, God has been moving in the hearts of so many in our parish, some who have expressed it openly and some who have kept these things in their hearts like our Mother Mary. Though there have been rough patches at times, I am forever grateful to God for all that He has done and continues to do here at Sacred Heart

My prayer is that the people of Sacred Heart may continue to be drawn deeper into the Heart of our Savior Jesus Christ, so we may continue His mission in our world.

It is my hope that these columns, which will release roughly once every other week, may provide a space for me to share my heart with you all, and, in the future, share some insight into what is happening at Sacred Heart, how we are growing together as a family and how we will continue to grow.

I am sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Brett Lapeyrouse
