St. Therese of Lisieux ~ Feast Day October 1

The Little Flower St. Therese loved nature, and often used imagery of nature to explain how the Divine Presence is everywhere, and how everything is connected in God's loving care and arms.

Therese saw herself as "the Little Flower of Jesus" because she was just like the simple wild flower in forest and fields, unnoticed, yet growing and giving glory to God. Therese did not see herself as a brilliant rose or lily, but simply as a wild flower. This is how she understood herself before the Lord-simple and hidden, but blooming where God had planted her. She saw the world as God's garden, and each person being a different kind of flower, enhancing the variety and beauty which Jesus delighted in. In her autobiography she beautifully explains. "Perfection consist in doing His will, in being what He wills us to be."

The Society of the Little Flower.

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Chant:

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, alleluia

If we love one another, God remains in us/ and his love is brought to perfection in us.

R. Alleluia, alleluia

HE EMBRACED THEM AND BLESSED THEM

Today Jesus stresses how children embody the reign of God. They are trusting and loving and have hearts that are open to love. They are joyful when they are made aware of God's love for them, and are eager to return that love. This is the model Jesus holds out to us if we want to welcome the reign of God. We need to have open, loving hearts. We must drop our defenses, however we came by them, and welcome Christ's love for us with joy. This is impossible for us on our own. Only the grace of God will enable us to do this, but that grace is freely and generously given. We have only to accept it.

THE HOLY GUARDIAN
ANGELS FEAST SATURDAY,
OCTOBER 2

Angel of God, my guardian dear,
to whom God's love commits me
here, ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The man said, "This one is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman' " (Genesis 2:18-24).

Psalm — May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives (Psalm 128).

Second Reading — He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin (Hebrews 2:9-11).

Gospel — Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it (Mark 10:2-16 [2-12]).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of our great treasures is the way the Church has frequently flourished under unfavorable conditions, like the grape ivy on the mantel that refuses to die no matter how infrequently you water it or open the drapes. Like the apartheid laws in South Africa in the last century, the penal laws of Ireland were aimed at depriving the majority population of basic human rights. The Protestant parliament of Ireland enacted laws limiting the practice of Catholicism. The goal was to force conversion from "popery" to the Church of Ireland, and additional laws took aim at Jews, non-Anglicans, and Quakers.

There were laws against intermarriage, laws against Catholics being lawyers (there was a one-hundred-pound fine), a law granting lifelong income to priests who became Protestant, and a ban on weapons. In fact, until 1793, a Catholic man had to recruit and pay a Protestant man to serve in the local militia in his place! As if family life is not complicated enough in any age, the sons of a deceased father could divide his land equally, unless one became Protestant. In that case all would go to him! When allowed, new Catholic churches had to be built of wood, not stone, be off a main road or city square, have no steeple or bell, and be called a "chapel." Catholic "Emancipation" was largely secured by 1829, but even up to the founding of the Irish State in the 1920s, some effects of the laws endured. No wonder that poor Irish immigrants to the United States frequently built gloriously beautiful churches as their first act on free soil!
